He publicly, honestly, forgives her precise mistake. She says he is the only father of their baby love Oonagh Amber, the rebel , no other man, her only lover , she says she is faithful to him and will repair her past mistakes (A152) , He says he forgives her past errors because he loves her, want her as wife, as consort , want to have more children with her, he says he cannot see her sad and will obey her. Forgiveness is a necessary element in the development of marriage life and has great repercussions with respect to the happiness of the people involved (Valliant 2002; Worthington 2005). As Pope Francis said "Forgiveness is the oxygen that purifies the air of hatred; forgiveness is the antidote to the poisons of resentment; it is the way to defuse anger and heal so many maladies of the heart that contaminate society' (USCCB,2023). The paper also mention of two poems on forgiveness namely Forgiveness is Divine by Fleming (2018) and Forgiveness is great quality by Amathalal (2024). I. INTRODUCTION

Martín et al (2011) researched on forgiveness in a couple. Forgiveness is one of the key elements of a successful marriage (Fenell,1993) and psychotherapeutic interventions centered on strengthening this aspect in the relationship appear to be highly effective (Baskin and Enright 2004). Forgiveness plays an important role in marriage. Worthington (2005) argued that forgiveness appears as one of the key elements in achieving happiness.

Forgiveness is a necessary element in the development of marriage life and has great repercussions with respect to the happiness of the people involved (Valliant 2002;Worthington 2005). Forgiveness may have both physical and emotional health benefits (McCullough, Worthington and Rachal 1997; Toussaint and Webb 2005; Toussaint, Williams, Musick and Everson 2001; Witvliet, Ludwig and Vander Laan 2001), giving an opportunity to advance in the development of personality (Enright 1994; Wolberg 1973); and that a lack of forgiveness may contribute to an increase in the levels of psychopathology (Mauger, Perry, Freeman, Grove and McKinney 1992). From the field of philosophy, Josef Seifert has noted that his own philosophical vocation comes from the discovery that: Forgiveness is a central object of philosophy, namely, a world of essential laws, completely independent from our subjectivity, an eidos previously given over to our intellect. In the essence of forgiveness I found something absolutely objective, that is discovered, and at the same time, possesses an ideal perfection infinitely difficult to realize in life (Seifert 2004:16).

II. LITERATURE REVIEW

The first poem is by Fleming,(2018) "Forgiveness Is Divine" that describe forgiveness as a virtue in this crazy world.

Some people view forgiveness As a virtue for the weak. An act of mercy undeserved, That serves no useful need. They stand firmly in their judgment And won't consider a mistake. They prefer to hold a senseless grudge Than accept amends when made. They feel they have some godly right To reject and criticize. They're possessed by righteous anger, And consumed by pointless pride.	They're focused on how they've been wronged, And won't be made the fool again. So they feel they must avenge themselves By refusing to give in. They will sacrifice their family, Or forsake a long-time friend. Do anything they have to do To be the winner in the end. Or perhaps it's that they can't resolve The depth of all their hurt, Caused when someone they've trusted, Left them questioning their worth.	But no matter why the struggle, Out of pride or out of fear, Not being able to forgive Can cause the loss of ones most dear. Yes, forgiveness is a virtue, They even say it is divine. But more than that it sets you free From what weighs you down inside. The best way to approach this life Is to ask forgiveness and to forgive. There's a balance to this crazy world, So live and just let live

The second poem is Forgiveness is great quality by Amathalal (2024)

Forgiveness Is Forgiveness is great quality Not all people are blessed with by almighty Only few people really practice They stick up to their demise The love can not be won over by hate You may get revenge but very late	The desired result will be not worth That shall trouble you till death It is nice to feel other's woe Your heart and mind should always go For entire humanity and think How to work toward that direction and bring? Today only good wish is needed	Commodity is traded But noble work is asking no return Only god may help in return Such kind of people do exist They not only perform but insist With their words and action They do not worry for any reaction

III. DISCUSSION

"Forgiveness is the oxygen that purifies the air of hatred; forgiveness is the antidote to the poisons of resentment; it is the way to defuse anger and heal so many maladies of the heart that contaminate society," the Pope said before praying the Angelus with some 20,000 people gathered in St. Peter's Square Sept. 17 (USCCB,2023).Gordon and Baucom (1998) define forgiveness as the achievement of: (a) a realistic, nondistorted, balanced view of the relationship; (b) a release from being controlled by negative affect toward the participating partner; and (c) a lessened desire to punish the participating partner. Gordon and Baucom envision forgiveness as a three-step process ("impact", "definition", and "movement towards"). Their model synthesizes and incorporates aspects of classical theories, models based in shock or trauma, cognitive-behavioral theory, systemic theory, as well as insight-oriented theories.

IV. CONCLUSION

Where there is true love, there can be forgiveness , taking in mind not to repeat same mistakes again. she says she is faithful to him and will repair her past mistakes (A152) .He says he forgives her past errors because he loves her, want her as wife, as consort , want to have more children with her, he says he cannot see her sad and will obey her. The world has mocked you, I am here to love you and become your husband.
